Description and how to apply

Oriel Chambers is currently inviting probationary tenancy applications, with a view to tenancy. Applications are invited from barristers who retain a particular interest in family, and/or commercial law. Previous experience in these areas is not a prerequisite, as the applicant will be provided with a Chambers supervisor during their probationary period.

The successful applicant will additionally receive the support of a first-class clerking team, who, together with our Chambers Director will ensure that their career path is structured in a manner that fits with your personal ambitions.

Oriel Chambers retains a collegiate culture. Both Members and staff are looking to grow our set with applicants who share our motivation to make Oriel Chambers the primary set of choice for our current and future clients.

All applications will be treated in the strictest confidence

We consider applications on an equal opportunity basis and we are committed to equality and diversity

Applications should be in writing enclosing a short introductory letter and curriculum vitae to our Chambers Director Nick O'Neill: nicholas.oneill@orielchambers.co.uk

For more information about this exciting opportunity please feel to call 0151 236 7191 to discuss the matter with Nick O'Neill.
