Description and how to apply
Gough Square Chambers specialises in all aspects of consumer law. This is a diverse field that encompasses almost any interaction between retail businesses and the public. Chambers has long been considered the country's leading set in consumer law and consumer finance and is recognised as a leading set by both Chambers & Partners and the Legal 500. As part of Chambers' ongoing growth and recruitment, we are accepting applications for a six month probationary tenancy commencing in October 2024. Chambers anticipates that the successful candidate will build a thriving practice in Chambers' practice areas within the six months and guarantees that the successful candidate will bill £40,000 in that period. The probationary tenancy is offered with the intention of offering a full tenancy at the expiry of the six months, provided that the candidate has met Chambers' expectations. Candidates will be assessed against Chambers' pupillage marking criteria which is published on Chambers' website. Applications should be made by way of covering letter and CV to pupillage@goughsq.co.uk. A written reference from current Chambers should also be provided if at all possible.
