Description and how to apply
Pump Court Chambers' busy Civil Team is looking for an able, enthusiastic and highly motivated third-six pupil to work in London and/or the Western and South Eastern Circuits, with a view to tenancy. There are a number of thriving sub-teams within the Civil Team, enabling practitioners to develop in the specialisms of their choosing. Applications are welcomed from individuals looking to practice in one or more of the following areas: • Personal Injury; • Property; • Employment; • Inquiries; • Business and Commercial; • Inheritance. Due to a significant increase in work in all practice areas we are accepting applications for third-six pupillages to start immediately, although this is flexible. Pump Court Chambers is a barristers' set fit for the modern business world.

As a large provider of legal services, Pump Court Chambers is recognised as top ranked' and 'a leading set' by Chambers and Partners Guide to the UK Legal Profession. We are highly regarded, by our peers and clients, for the depth of our expertise across the full range of contentious legal services.

Our tenants have the opportunity and freedom to develop their practice as they desire whilst benefitting from the support and expertise of an established chambers with experts in all areas of civil litigation.

As a pupil and as a member of chambers you will have the opportunity to be based in London, in Hampshire or in Wiltshire. We pride ourselves on our Chambers wellbeing initiatives which include our new parental leave policy, critical illness cover for all members and an established programme of mentoring and career progression.

Our pupils are encouraged to become involved in all aspects of chambers life including opportunities to help steer the civil team into the future. If you share our ambition, drive and commitment to excellence in all that we do, we would like to hear from you.

All applications will be treated in confidence. We are an equal opportunities set and are committed to equality and diversity. To download the application form please click here and submit to l.samuels@pumpcourtchambers.com. Please advise if you require adjustments because of a disability.
