Description and how to apply
Goldsmith Chambers is currently recruiting Third Six pupils with a view to tenancy for both our Criminal and Civil Practice Groups. Criminal Team: Applications are sought from candidates with experience of conducting a wide range of hearings in the criminal courts, for both the prosecution and defence. The successful candidates will be committed to practicing in crime. Civil Team: Applications are sought from candidates with Direct Access accreditation and the adaptability to cover a wide range of mixed civil law. All applicants should e-mail Catherine Milsom (c.milsom@goldsmithchambers.com) Head of the Pupillage and New Tenancy Committee, with the subject line "Third Six Application", and with the following documents attached:

- Your covering letter and CV,
- A print-out of your work diary covering last three months,
- Any references that you would like us to consider, including from solicitors and former pupil supervisors, and
- Our Equal Opportunities Monitoring Form (link under the Pupillage tab on our website , should you wish to complete it. Please note that completion of this form is entirely voluntary.
