

The General Council of the Bar Terms and Conditions (v1.0 26.01.17)

These terms and conditions relate to Bar Council training courses and events taking place on or after 26 January 2017. This document tells you ("you" means the party contracting with the Bar Council for courses and events) the terms and conditions on which we ("we", "us" or "The Bar Council" means The General Council of the Bar) supply training courses and events ("courses" or "events"). Please read these terms and conditions carefully before booking onto any Bar Council training courses or events. You should understand that by booking onto a Bar Council training courses or event, you agree to be bound by these terms and conditions. You should print a copy of these terms and conditions for future reference.

1. Booking Courses or Events

Bookings for courses or events can be made via our "website" (means www.barcouncil.org.uk) at the following link: <http://www.barcouncil.org.uk/supporting-the-bar/bar-council-training-courses> or by contacting our Training & Events team on +44(0)207 611 1329 or at TrainingandEvents@BarCouncil.org.uk. For online bookings, please select the course/event that you require and click on the "book" or "click here" to book links, following the instructions step by step.

2. Description and pricing of courses and events

Although we make every effort to ensure the prices listed are correct, errors can be made. If an error is discovered in the price of the course or event that you have booked prior to confirmation of your booking, we will tell you and give you the option of either reconfirming your booking at the correct price or cancelling your booking. The Bar Council reserves the right to change prices listed without notice.

3. Bar Representation Fee (BRF) reduced rates

Those who pay the Bar Representation Fee (BRF) are entitled to a reduced rate for many of our courses and events. If booking via the website, please select the Bar Representation Fee (BRF) option. When booking by any other means, you should inform a member of the Training and Events team of your membership in order to be entitled to a reduced rate. If you fail to select the BRF option on the booking site or mention your BRF status at the time of booking, you will be charged the full price for your course or event. Unfortunately we cannot offer any retrospective refund or credit for any BRF discount that you would have been entitled to receive.

4. Provisional bookings

When booking a Bar Council training course or event online, acknowledgement of the booking request is emailed within 1 working day of the request being received by The Bar Council. Where a booking made online, by email or over the telephone is not accompanied by full payment or a purchase order number (sent either by post or by email), the booking will be deemed to be provisional ("provisional booking"). Provisional bookings will only be held until 2 (two) weeks prior to commencement of the course or event, after this any provisional bookings will be cancelled. When payment has been received in full, or a purchase order number has been provided (either by email or by post), the individuals' place on the course or event will then be confirmed and a binding contract will have been entered into between The Bar Council and the booking party. Please refer further to the "How to pay" section below.

5. Third party bookings

We accept bookings from third party companies acting on a delegate's or organisation's behalf, however the booking information supplied must relate directly to the delegate(s) in question and include the following:

- Delegate name
- Job title
- Company name
- Company address
- Direct phone number
- Direct email address – this can be a work or personal email address

Bookings cannot be processed without this information being provided in full. This is to enable us to contact the delegate(s) directly when necessary (such as to provide joining instructions or pre-course work) and also to provide appropriate health & safety and security measures at course venues.

6. Cancellation of courses and events

The Bar Council reserves the right to amend or cancel any course or event, course or event times, dates or published prices. Changes to course and event prices, times and dates will be advised before the course or event start date and any course or event already paid in full will not be subject to the increased price. As a course may be cancelled at any time up to one week prior to its start, we recommend that delegates do not make travel or accommodation arrangements before this time. Any travel, accommodation or subsistence costs incurred (including incidental costs such as car parking) are entirely the responsibility of the delegate or the delegate's organisation. The Bar Council does not accept any liability for reimbursement of any costs incurred whatsoever in relation to its training courses or events. Where a course or event has been cancelled, delegates will be offered an alternative date for the same course or event. Refunds are not provided except in extreme circumstances.
