

Programme

Bar Council GDPR Conference - "One year on"

Training of Lawyers on the European Union's Data Protection Reform (TRADATA)

27 March 2019, The Hatton, 51-53 Hatton Garden, Clerkenwell, London EC1N 8HN

09:00 – 09:30	Registration
09:30 - 09:45	Introduction Jacqueline Reid, Chair of IT Panel
09:45 - 10:15	Session 1 - The GDPR & the Data Protection Act 2018 Tamara Quinn, Osborne Clark LLP
10:15 - 10:45	Session 2 - The view from Europe: GDPR, the work of the CCBE and Brexit Iain Mitchell QC, IT Panel
10:45 - 11:00	Questions & answers on session 1 & 2
11:00 - 11:15	Coffee break
11:15 - 11:40	Session 3 – The principles of data protection Shobana Iyer, Swan Chambers
11:40 - 12:05	Session 4 - The barrister and chambers as data controller/data processor Shobana Iyer, Swan Chambers
12:05 - 12:15	Question and answers on sessions 3 & 4

The project is co-funded by the REC Programme of the European Union

12:15 - 13:30	Lunch
13:30 - 14:00	Session 5 – Rights of data subjects – highlights Quentin Archer, Jurit
14:00 - 14:30	Session 6 - The ICO – guidance, investigative and enforcement powers, effect of PECR on direct marketing and fines for non-compliance Stephen Flack, Information Commissioner’s Office
14:30 - 14:45	Questions and answers on sessions 5 & 6
14:45 - 15:00	Coffee break
15:00 - 15:30	Session 7 - Transfers of data outside the EEA, Brexit storage of data in cloud systems Lawrence Akka QC, 20 Essex Street & Shobana Iyer, Swan Chambers
15:30 - 16:00	Session 8 - Cybersecurity in the real world and its relation to data protection Tim Luck, Pen Test Partners
16:00 - 16:15	Questions and answers on sessions 7 & 8
16:15 - 16:45	Concluding session - General questions to the panel and final remarks

